Trichy: Urging students to make use of the executive MBA program as an opportunity to develop an all-round personality, Ganesh Mani S, director–production, Hyundai Motor India Ltd, emphasized that MBA gives a wider view of the business and the economic environment.

In addition to teaching what is to be done, MBA also teaches what path should be avoided, said Ganesh Mani, who was the chief guest of the virtual inauguration event of the ninth batch of the post-graduate programme in business management (PGPBM) of IIM Trichy on Saturday.

He shared his experience in the automotive industry and asked the participants to become growth drivers for taking the Indian economy to next level.

On the challenges of Covid-19, he said that adversity gives an opportunity. He asked the participants to utilise the time they allocate for coursework towards achieving bigger goals.

He also said that quickness is becoming the need of the hour as the definition of long-term and short-term has shrunk from years to weeks.

Lakshmi Priya, manager, Rane Madras Ltd, and an alumna of PGPBM 2014-17 Batch, IIM Trichy, emphasized on the open-mindedness, sincerity and dedication, taking the employer, spouse and family members into confidence and managing work-study-life balance.

With a batch size of 50 and average work experience of 8.5 years, this batch is comparable to other international executive program batches, said Bhimaraya Metri, director, IIM Trichy, while congratulating students on joining the institution.

Term Wise Merit awards for best academic performance in Term IV of the PGPBM 2018-20 batch was awarded to Arasuprakash S, Term V of the PGPBM 2018-20 batch to Mahesh Sundar N.

Merit awards for the first year of the PGPBM 2019-21 batch were also announced to be given to Ram Selvan V for Term I, Godse Rujul Mohan, K Srividya and Vatsavi S for Term II and N Nanda Kishore for Term III.
