IIM Trichy Launches Leadership and Change Management Certificate Program

□ komalsingh • 3 hours ago

TRICHY: The Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Trichy launched its first batch of leadership and change management (PGCLCM) graduate certificate programs on Sunday.

The 6-month program offered in connection with Times TSW is a management education program for active executives. This course will be held in mixed mode on Sunday afternoon with a direct model to the device.

The first batch has 67 participants, with an average of 14 years of work experience.

Abhishek Totawar, program director at PGCLCM, said the program is trying to impress growing leaders and see change as a daily occurrence.

He added that guiding such changes in the organizational environment would keep up with participants with leadership abilities.

Godwin Tennyson, Head of IIMTrichy, said addressing change is a symbiotic process and is necessary for organizations and their leaders to embrace change and maintain relevance.

Event Chief Guest Matrimony.com Chief Human Resources Officer SRajesh Balaji emphasized the importance of this specialized course to help mid-career professionals grow faster.
