Trichy: Indian Institute of Management Tiruchirappalli (IIM Trichy) felicitated the best performers of PGPM 2018-2020, 2019-2021 batches, and PGPBM 2017-19, 2018-2020 batches with gold medals and certificates in the felicitation ceremony on Sunday, November 14, 2021, and during the event congratulated all the graduate students. The event was attended by the medallists and IIM Trichy fraternity, both offline and online due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The event began with an invocation and the lighting of the lamp, followed by a welcome address by Dr. Deepak Kumar Srivastava, Dean-Academics, IIM Tiruchirappalli. He congratulated the medal winners on their achievements and spoke about them being the bridge between the institute and the industry. He also stressed upon the importance of application of classroom learning in real life. This was followed by an address by Dr. Pawan Kumar Singh, Director, IIM Tiruchirappalli. He emphasized on the significance of invoking positive cosmic energies from our surroundings. He also stressed on the importance of attaining physical, mental and spiritual peace. He urged the students to strive to be worthy of praise and receptive of criticism and gave them insights about the levels of authority and responsibility at different points during one's career. He also gave examples of how experience is the best teacher and wished them luck for their future endeavours. This was followed by the award ceremony.

The Chairperson, PGPM, Prof. Alok Kumar Singh announced the Year-wise Gold Medallists for excellent academic performance. From PGPM 2018-20 batch, Navisa J was awarded the Chairperson's Gold Medal and ICSI Signature Award for securing First Rank, and Punjab National Bank Gold Medal for First Rank among Women Students.
