Trichy: The 13th batch of the postgraduate programme in management (PGPM), the 4th batch of the postgraduate programme in management – human resources (PGPM-HR), and the 4th batch of executive doctoral programme in management (EDPM) at the Indian Institute of Management - Trichy (IIM-T), were inaugurated on Monday.

Addressing the event, Suparna Mitra, CEO of watches and wearables division, Titan Company Limited enlightened the participants with the value of 3As - ambition, accountability and authenticity. She elaborated on how ambition for oneself and the community, with the willpower to challenge the status quo, can shape a better society. She emphasized that accountability at a deeper level is synonymous with integrity and urged the students to do what is right, even if it is hard. She urged the students to go for a domain that suits and complements them at the end of the course.TNN
