IIM Tiruchirappalli hosts the Valedictory Function of PGCMMMA Batch – 01

IIM Trichy organized the valedictory function of the first batch of the Post Graduate Certificate Programme in Manufacturing Management and Analytics (PGCMMA) on 25 June, 2022. Programme Director, Dr. Gajanand M. S., presented the batch report. He spoke about the year long journey of the students and how they continued to thrive despite the pandemic and the challenges it presented. He provided an overview of the programme, its importance, and the eclectic group of students who completed the certificate programme.

The Director of the institute, Dr. Pawan Kumar Singh, thanked the programme directors, faculty, and the entire team of IIM Trichy for making the programme a success. He talked about the importance of manufacturing management, optimization, and innovation that form the core of any business. He further highlighted the diverse set of topics such as human nature, economics, technology, and how they all are connected to manufacturing management. He congratulated the students and their family for reaching this milestone.

The programme completion certificates were awarded to 82 students. Prof. Sirish Kumar Gouda proposed the vote of thanks by acknowledging the efforts of everyone involved in the success of this programme.
