IIM Tiruchirappalli hosts classical music night organized by SPIC MACAY

IIM Trichy hosted a classical music night on the 13th of Feb organized by SPIC MACAY- Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Amongst Youth in association with the SRF foundation. The students witnessed the mesmerizing performance of the Sitar- prodigy Pd. Shubhendra Rao - the disciple of Pd. Ravi Shankar. He was accompanied by his student from Japan Mr. Isamo Saito along with Sri Pranshu Lal on the Tabla. Pd. Shubhendra Rao is a composer and sitar player who is ranked amongst the top soloists of India and has performed at prestigious venues and festivals like the Kennedy Center, Carnegie Hall, Broadway, the Sydney Opera House, the National Arts Festival, the Theatre de la Ville, Dover Lane Music Conference and St. Xavier's College Ahmedabad among many others.

This event was conducted as a part of the SPIC MACAY's SRF Virasat 2019 festival which promotes Indian culture and the value of rich Indian traditions. The captivating musical night began with the performance of Pd. Shubhendra Rao playing the Night raga composed by Pd. Ravi Shankar, accompanied by Sri Pranshu Lal on the Tabla. Their duet performance left a lasting impression on the students, reconnecting them with the Indian culture. The event ended with a vote of thanks proposed by Prof. Papri Nath, IIM Trichy.
