IIM Trichy conducts International Week hosting eminent faculty from across the globe

Indian Institute of Management Tiruchirappalli is conducting the second iteration of International Week starting from 17th December and will be held until 23rd December. Popularly known as the I-week among the business schools, this initiative was started by IIM Trichy in 2017. During this event eminent faculties from various business schools across the globe gather to impart their knowledge through various credit-courses.

The faculties hail from Australian Institute of Business, Western Michigan University, University of Louisville, Victoria Business School among others. These courses provide the students with a much-needed exposure to various global business perspectives and how to amalgamate the domestic knowledge with the business decisions. I-week conducted during the month of December attracts students from the regular MBA program as well as executive MBA program alike.

This year there are 11 faculties from across 5 countries such as Australia, New Zealand, USA, Fiji/ Malaysia, UK/China for the I-Week. They will be taking up 11 courses in different domains designed specifically to impart the nuances of both theory and application across the span of 7 days. In this second iteration of I-Week more than 120 students have enrolled comprising of both PGP and PGBM students from several institutes.

IIM Trichy looks forward to an engaging and enriching experience for both the faculty and the students.
