PGPM-HR SIP HIGHLIGHTS

The PGPM-HR programme prepares future HR professionals with core domain specific knowledge, business acumen and is augmented with exposure to contemporary topics on emerging technologies, analytics, sustainability, diversity, equity and inclusion. Our unique mentoring program involves one-on-one mentoring by HR leaders over a 18-month association. The Mentors share the legacy from one's own learning about managing HR which is a source of inspiration to a young student to be a great HR leader. This prepares the graduate to hold HR positions with a sense of ethics, commitment, responsibility as well as capabilities to take on the challenges of HR roles with higher confidence as they step or re-step into the corporate world after two years.
