From the Editor

IIM Trichy conducted the seventh annual convocation in March this year. The event was presided over by Chief Guest Mr. M.M. Murugappan, Executive Chairman of the Murugappa Group, along with the Director, Chairman and Board Members of the Institute. Mr. Murugappan delivered a wonderful convocation address peppered with humorous anecdotes and advice to the graduating batch. The winter also saw multiple international events: the conference on emerging trends in librarianship, the international week, and the strategic management forum annual conference. The students also organized Dhruva and Nishtha, the cultural and management fests of the Institute. The campus hosted Sunburn, a renowned event as part of Dhruva. The summer placements, and the final placements went well, to conclude a productive season at the Institute.

Seventh Annual Convocation

The Seventh Annual Convocation of the Indian Institute of Management Tiruchirappalli, to award degrees for the first time to the students of Post Graduate Programme in Management (PGPM) and the Post Graduate Programme in Business Management (PGPBM), was held on Saturday, 30th of March 2019 at IIM Tiruchirappalli Campus. The students were awarded a degree of Master of Business Administration (MBA) instead of diploma as per the IIM Act.

Shri. M. M. Murugappan, Executive Chairman, Murugappa Group was the Chief Guest for the convocation. Dr. Bhimaraya Metri, Director, IIM Tiruchirappalli presented the Director's Report. Shri. Jalaj Dani, Chairman, Board of Governors, IIM Tiruchirappalli awarded the degrees to 169 graduands of Postgraduate Programme in Management (PGPM) and 41 graduands of the Post Graduate Programme in Business Management (PGPBM).

The Director, in his report, highlighted the institute's achievement during the academic year 2018-2019. He informed that this year has seen tremendous increase in students' achievements, research publications from faculty, increase in executive education programs and during this academic year more than 40 guest speakers shared their wisdom with the students. He further said that various corporates have trusted the Institute's pedagogy as a result of which the summer internship and final placement saw a tremendous growth in both, the average package offered as well as the number of companies that visited the campus this year. He gave 5 mantras of success to the passing out batch, which includes making uncomfortable zone comfortable, having laser focus on goals, leading the change, excelling in their respective fields and keep on learning lifelong.

The Chairman, BoG, IIM Trichy in his address appreciated the government's move to provide autonomy to the Institute and mentioned that the autonomy would promote innovation in pedagogy. He addressed the passing out students as the leaders of tomorrow and urged them to abide by their values throughout their life. He guided the students to unleash themselves from any constraints and make best use of their unique skills and capabilities to achieve success in this dynamic world.

Shri. M. M. Murugappan, the Chief Guest in his address urged IIM Trichy's students to lead the world in fighting against the various issues being faced at the present moment. He wanted the students to work towards eliminating global warming, climate change and potable water crisis in a sustainable manner. He gave three mantras of success: Never underestimate anyone, learning to learn and building long lasting relationships. He advised the students to have a vision for self and insisted that the only security in life is the ability and IIM Trichy has played a role in building a part of it.

The Chief Guest presented medals and awards to students for their meritorious achievements and all-round performance. Members of the Board of Governors, faculty members, graduating students, staff, parents, members of the media and other distinguished guests were present at the convocation ceremony. The occasion concluded with the national anthem.
